APPENDIX.

GENERAL SPECIFICATION IN RESPECT OF NEW HOISTS.

(1) Deviations.—

Tenders for a Crane intended to deviate in any way from that prescribed in these specifications must be accompanied by a statement showing in detail all the proposed deviations. Should drawings be sent in with the Tender showing a Crane apparently differing from that described in this specification, it must be clearly understood that the specification must be complied with unless the proposed deviations are fully and clearly described in the statement accompanying the Tender and in the execution of the work, only such alterations as are fully described and accepted will be allowed, in all other respects the specification on which the Tender was invited must be complied with.

(2) Working Drawings.—

Within one month the contract is placed, the contractor whose tender is accepted must prepare at his own cost, six sets of certified general working drawings of the Crane for the satisfactory erection of the Crane. The contractor is to
